WELCOME TO LEANDER

Welcome to the Living Leander Magazine

Dear Friends,

It is my absolute pleasure to welcome you to this edition of Living Leander Magazine. Each page of this publication reflects the vibrancy, growth, and heart of our incredible community. Leander is more than just a city; it's a place where businesses thrive, neighbors become friends, and together we create a future full of promise.

Leander's charm lies in its unique ability to blend a small-town feel with big opportunities. From our bustling local businesses to our scenic parks and engaging community events, there is something for everyone here. Our collective efforts to support one another—whether it's through shopping locally, participating in community initiatives, or simply sharing a smile—are what make Leander such a remarkable place to live, work, and grow.

I'm also thrilled to share some exciting news — the Leander Chamber of Commerce and Visitors Center has a brand-new home at 103 N West Dr. This beautiful historic home will serve as the centerpiece of our new one-acre site in the heart of Old Town. The property will eventually include an extension of the main building with co-working space and meeting rooms, along with a tertiary building that will serve as a full training and small event center. We can't wait for you to see our new space and join us as we begin this exciting new chapter for the Chamber and our community.

As we celebrate this milestone and look ahead, I'm proud to highlight another important initiative: the Building Leander Together Capital Campaign. This campaign represents our vision for a modern facility designed to serve as a hub for business innovation, community engagement, and economic development. With this new campus, we're creating a space that fosters collaboration, provides vital resources, and reflects the spirit of growth that defines our city.

The success of this campaign relies on the collective support of our community. By contributing to this project, you're investing in the future of Leander and ensuring we continue to build a city where dreams flourish and opportunities abound. Together, we can create a space that not only meets today's needs but also positions us for a bright and prosperous future.

Thank you for being an essential part of Leander's story. Whether you're a lifelong resident, a new neighbor, or a local business leader, your contributions make a difference. Let's continue to build Leander together—a city where community, innovation, and opportunity thrive.

Thanks,

Bridget Brandt

LETTER FROM THE MAYOR PRO TEM

Welcome to Leander, Texas. You belong here. This is home.

Belonging means feeling seen, supported, and connected. It means knowing your voice matters and your presence makes a difference. That's the spirit of Leander. Here, belonging isn't a slogan—it's how we live, work, and lead together.

Many years ago, Leander was a small, sleepy town. Today, it's home to nearly 90,000 residents and stands among the fastest-growing cities in America. This year, U.S. News & World Report ranked Leander the 8th best place to live in the United States and the 3rd best in Texas. Our city is also recognized as one of the 10 safest small cities in Texas, a reflection of our strong public safety team and community partnerships. Families thrive here, businesses grow here, and neighbors still wave hello.

Leander's business community is growing rapidly, with new developments in Crystal Village, Bar W Marketplace, Northline, and along 183A and the 183 corridors. Our economic growth brings more places to eat, shop, and connect—from family-owned restaurants and local boutiques to national retailers and vibrant gathering spaces. Whether you're enjoying dinner in Old Town, grabbing coffee before work, or spending the weekend exploring local breweries and boutique retail shops, there's always something happening close to home.

You've probably heard about our award-winning school district and our CALEA-accredited police department. And yes, those 350 acres of parks and trails are as beautiful as everyone says.

But what truly makes Leander special is our people. Community is more than a word here—it's our identity. We want you to jump in and get involved.

- Join the Chamber of Commerce and connect with other business owners.
- Bring your family to Old Town Street Festival, Liberty Fest, and the Christmas Parade & Tree Lighting.
- Celebrate unity during our MLK March and tip your hat to Texas history at our Juneteenth Jubilee.
- Enjoy the rich sounds of our Bluegrass & Folk Festival and unwind with Movies in the Park.

Every event, every gathering, and every handshake tells the story of who we are—a city built on connection, care, and pride. We show up for one another. We celebrate together. And we keep building a community where everyone belongs.

On behalf of our residents, city staff, and council, it is my distinct pleasure to welcome you to Leander—where belonging builds community and community feels like home.

Welcome home,

Not An American Genius

Einstein was born in Ulm, a city that lives between two states. One foot in Württemberg and one foot in Bayern, his life began out of place. He was thrown further out of place in 1933 when a new chancellor didn’t like his name or religion.

The genius of America allowed Einstein to dream big and change the world. America looks beyond name and religion. It welcomes “out of place” dreamers so they can change the world.

MAVA Partners is a team of people with the wrong name and the wrong religion and exceptional talents. We’re not Einsteins. But we know our place. And that place is fueling the genius of American entrepreneurs with the right talent so they can change the world.
